The balance of all funds are due before the trip begins. Only in this way can we keep the costs manageable and as low as they are. We appreciate your help in this!)

Notes: * All costs have been anticipated at Monte Lauro Vineyards so that you need not have cash on hand when visiting, however it is a good idea to allow for spending money when dining out, visiting markets or shopping locally.

**We regularly canvas other offerings on the internet to be sure we offer substantial value versus any other comparable program, value that typically exceeds 60% in savings. In some cases comparable programs simply don't exist but we strive to deliver as much value as we can anyway. We want you to come back again and again!
